PECULIAR RESULT OF ACCIDENT

On a recent morning when Harvey Hoskins, 15 years old, awoke he discovered he was totally blind. The loss of sight by the boy is the culmination of an accident last June, when one eye was injured by a silver of glass from a soda bottle which struck him on the forehead and broke into fragments.—Austin Reville.

A patent has been granted a Maryland man for a theater curtain showing a picture of a windmill, the arms of which are revolved by an electric motor.

BURGLARS PLY THEIR MIDNIGHT PROFESSION

POSTOFFICE ENTERED, MONEY TAKEN; TAILOR SHOP ALSO VICTIM OF ROBBERS

The frosted glass in the window of Postmaster Stewart's private office was broken some time during last night and a burglar entered. He prowled about the place, moving various articles from the accustomed places. The cash drawer at the stamp window was rifled of $2.25 in pennies, these coins not having been placed in the safe with the other money. It is not yet known whether he secured any letters or parcels, but a system of checking up is now in progress.

The police this morning arrested a negro who had pennies in his pocket. He is being held for the second degree. During the night George Smith's tailor shop on Mineral street was also entered. Two suits of clothes and two bolts of cloth were taken. A third robbery has been reported. When Harry Bergman, a Main street barber, returned to his room on Mineral street late last night he found that the door had been forced and his wearing apparel was missing. The police are working on the three burglaries and believe that they have the right parties either under arrest or surveillance.

FIRST-CLASS GAMES BASKETBALL PLANNED

SCHEDULE PARTIALLY PREPARED THAT PROMISES TO BE OF INTEREST

After the present vacation the basketball season for the high school will be re-opened with a number of first class games already scheduled. Coach Walker has a game for the boys scheduled with Manhattan for Saturday evening, January 8. The Manhattan boys did not take up football but spent that time in practicing basketball, with the result that they are in the best of condition for this popular sport. They have a first class coach in their principal and the local team will have to work to win.

This will be the first game of the season for the high school boys with another high school, and they feel that they must put forth every effort to begin the season with a victory. On January 14, it is expected that the girls' team from the White Pine county high school will be in Tonopah for a game with the Tonopah girls. On January 21, the Las Vegas girls will be in Tonopah to play the return game with the Tonopah team.

PROGRESS OF WEEK IN NORTH STAR MINE

Stoping is in progress above the 950 level of the North Star mine, with some stoping also being done above the 900. The main drift on the 950 made its usual progress. Two small cross cuts were made that picked up the footwall vein. The developments in the property were very satisfactory during the past week, despite two days' shutdown for Christmas.

DEATH OF EARLIEST PIONEER

Mrs. Eugenia Hayden, widow of the late T. A. Hayden, the first district judge of Washoe county, died at her home in Reno recently. She arrived in this state in 1860 in company with her husband. They came by way of the Isthmus of Panama and settled in Virginia City. When they arrived at Reno but one house had been built. She was 75 years of age and is survived by two sons and four daughters.

ELY ELKS RECEIVE AID FROM TONOPAH LODGE TO RELIEVE THE POOR

Yesterday Fred Oldfield received a wire from Lowell Daniels, secretary of the Tonopah lodge of Elks, saying:

"Have wired seventy-five dollars to distribute to needy for Christmas. Committee is Oldfield and Victor Mayer of Ruth."

All Ely Elks are under the jurisdiction of the Tonopah lodge, hence the interest of the brothers there. Before this wire was received, the local Elks had taken it upon themselves to see that no one should be in want at what should be the happiest season of all the year, and a committee headed by Frank Callaway, has been at work for some time past.

The Elks are always strict and determined that their charity shall not be known to the world, but many a person will receive something to make them glad on that happy morn when we awake to celebrate the birth of the Redeemer of all mankind.

If you know of a person in need the boys mentioned will thank you for your suggestion.—White Pine News.

INGENUOUS SYSTEM RE-CIRCULATING AIR

DIFFICULTIES OVER HEATING SCHOOL ROOMS BELIEVED TO BE OVERCOME

A system of re-circulating the air in the high school, devised and installed under the direction of J. B. Tregloan, president of the local board of education, has proved to be a great success in heating every room in the building to the proper temperature with the use of the minimum amount of fuel.

The new system consists of an air flue from the gymnasium to the fan room. This flue, as well as the air flue from outdoors, is provided with a damper. When the fires are started in the morning, the damper in the outdoor flue is closed and the other opened so that the fan draws air from within the building. All the doors of the various rooms within the building are opened into the corridors, allowing the air to pass into the corridors and thence into the gymnasium and back to the fan room, to be used again. After the rooms are thus heated, some cold air from without is drawn in to be mixed with the re-circulating air and after the children arrive the indoor damper is closed and the outdoor damper opened to supply all fresh air. Two or three rooms in the building have always been cold in winter, regardless of every effort made to force heat into them until this system was devised. Perhaps the coldest weather of the winter has not yet been experienced but thus far, since the installation of this system, these troublesome rooms have been heated very comfortably.

MANHATTAN NOW A LIVE DISTRICT

SIGNS OF ACTIVITY AGAIN EVIDENT AT THE PINE TREE CAMP

At the Union Amalgamated company property at Manhattan, the preparatory work at the Earl and Merger properties necessary before the starting of the company mill has been about completed. At the outset it was found that the Earl's working shaft had caved from between the 75 and 150 levels. This necessitated retimbering the shaft for 75 feet and mucking the caved material from the entire shaft to the 350 level. This has been stow work due to the decayed shaft timbers, track and piping being all mixed with the waste. However, the cave proved somewhat of a blessing in disguise, as the caved ground has left exposed a very promising shoot of ore in the hanging wall, says a correspondent of the Mining Press.

The Litigation Hill Merger shaft has been pumped out to 400 feet. This has drained the Earl and Merger workings. All is in readiness for underground work. The mill will commence on December 15. The ore bodies have been sampled.

At the Big Pine a large ledge has been cut in the south gorge. From the Train-Chase lease on Mustang hill, 36 tons yielded $87.60 per ton by amalgamation at the War Eagle mill. A previous lot gave $100 per ton. Three shoots have been exposed in sinking the shaft.

The White Caps Mining company has just distributed checks, making the final payment in the liquidation of the debts taken over from the old company at the time of the reorganization. It is understood that company operations are to be started shortly, the first mining work to be the sinking of the vertical shaft for another 100 feet.

NEVADA WONDER GIVES ANNUAL REPORT

SHOWS PROPERTY TO BE IN FLOURISHING CONDITION AND PROSPECTS EXCELLENT

The ninth annual report of the Nevada Wonder Mining company, operating at Wonder, Churchill county, Nevada, covers the year ended September 30, 1915. The reports of J. A. Burgess and E. E. Carpenter, for the mine and mill respectively, include the following:

Development amounted to 6053 feet, a total decrease of 5052 feet, compared with the previous term. A three-compartment inclined subshaft is now being sunk from the 1300 foot level. A station is being cut at 1450 feet to connect with workings done from a winze. The cost of mining was $4.16 per ton, a reduction of 49 cents. The mill treated 58,124 tons of ore, an increase of 9455 tons. The stamp duty was 15.92 tons per day, or 18.1 tons for actual operating time. The recovery was 95.3 per cent of the gold and 93.58 per cent of the silver, resulting in a total of 9801 ounces of gold and 1,123,398 ounces of silver. This was an increased recovery of .91 per cent in value. The total cost of treatment was $2.813 per ton. All costs amounted to $7.45 per ton, a decrease of $1.49. With cash on hand, $55,231; loans, $220,000, etc., the revenue totaled $581,124. Two dividends of five per cent each absorbed $140,808. Cash at the end of September was $10,274.

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN TO PREVENT RABIES

FOUR DEPUTY SHERIFFS GUARD THE NORTHERN BORDER OF NYE COUNTY

James Riordan, a prominent stockman of Snydside, Nye county, was an Ely visitor during the week, and states that the stockmen of that section are prepared to resist all ingress of sheep which are being driven on towards their section from Elko county, and are known to be afflicted with rabies. Mr. Riordan states that at a recent meeting of the county commissioners of Nye county resolutions were passed authorizing the sheriff's office to resist all aggressions of the stockmen and prevent their sheep from entering the county. In order to comply with this order, James Riordan, Charles Stephens, John Whipple and W. Y. McGill were appointed deputy sheriffs with instructions to carry out the instructions of the board. Several bands of sheep are now moving south and will no doubt reach the northern line of Nye county within a few days, when the fireworks will commence.—Ely Record.

KEANE WONDER MILL TO RESUME OPERATIONS

Milling operations are to be resumed at once on the property of the Keane Wonder Mining company, under the direction of F. N. Fletcher, the engineer in charge of the D. Mackenzie interests in Nevada, who passed through Goldfield this week on his way to the property at the border of Death valley, says the Goldfield Tribune. The mine workings are said to contain a large tonnage of low grade, free milling ore, already broken, which will be put through the mill. For some time past only the cyanide plant has been in operation, treating the accumulated tailings.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

Maurice Tourneur, the famous director, has produced a great photodrama in "The Ivory Snuff Box," a five-reel film written by Frederick Arnold Kummer. Holbrook Blinn plays the part of an American detective in France, who is commissioned to recover a lost ivory snuff box, the property of the French ambassador. On the very day he receives his orders he gets married; duty parts him from his bride. Then Duval's adventures begin. Murder, mystery, espionage, plot and counter-plot; journeys to and fro in Europe; perils in ships and trains culminate in his finding himself in a sanitarium where, horrors of horrors, he meets his young wife. They escape, and the recovery of the snuff box permits Duval and his bride to continue their interrupted honeymoon. Holbrook Blinn's part fits him like the proverbial glove. It is a great part in a powerful play. Alma Belwin plays the part of Grace, the young bride. It is this charming actress' first appearance in pictures, and she acquires herself with distinction.

The preliminary reel will be Pathe Weekly, which will be run ahead of the feature. Tomorrow, a William Fox production, "The Family Stain," featuring Frederick Perry, supported by a distinguished cast of players, founded on Emile Gaboriau's celebrated detective story, "The Widow Le Rouge."

CLAIMS TO BE THE TOUGHEST TOWN OF ALL

We are so tough, that this year there was no public Christmas tree for the children, although we have three commodious and well furnished church buildings. We are so tough that our 15-year-old boy ran the principal of our public schools out of town in 24 hours, and the principal was a southern brigadier at that. We are so tough that no minister of the gospel will make Austin his regular place of residence for fear that he will lose his own ticket of admission to the Pearly Gates. Hump! Guess Austin's some tough.—Austin Revelle.

MOUNTAIN LION KILLED IN LAMOILLE

Charles Messerly-Palmer and Will Roberts, two young men who are trapping in Lamolille valley, shot an immense mountain lion about a mile from the Voight ranch in that valley, about two weeks ago, and for several days they had the hide on exhibition here. The animal measured eight feet 9 inches from tip to tip.—Independent.
